Dear Jacob:

Your request to defer your admission has been approved. We have administratively canceled your fall 2020 application to Washington State University and have moved it to the term you selected in your request. Once processing begins for the new term, you will receive additional notification from our office; if additional academic credentials are needed we will let you know that as well. Your admission status will be updated to be the same as your fall 2020 application and any advance payments on tuition will be applied to the new term.

Requested term: Spring 2021

You have indicated you are not attending school anywhere else; if your plans change, please notify us immediately.

We also recommend that you contact these other offices if you started any paperwork with them or for possible refunds:

- Housing and Residence Life: Canceling with admissions does not cancel your housing contract. If you have applied for university housing, you must now cancel that application yourself to avoid further financial penalties. Visit Housing and Residence Life at housing.wsu.edu, then click on My Account and return to your application. Click on the cancel button. You will receive an email back when this is successfully done. Partial or full refunds of housing deposits may be an option.
- Orientation: If you are already registered for an upcoming orientation session, please call 509-335-4242 or email orientation@wsu.edu to cancel your registration.
- Student Financial Services (SFS): To cancel your financial aid application please complete the "Cancellation/Reinstatement of Financial Aid" form by visiting financialaid.wsu.edu/forms. You may also contact the SFS office by emailing financialaid@wsu.edu or by calling 509-335-9711. This will stop all processing of your financial aid awards and will discontinue all email communications from SFS.

Other important information for you to know about. You may need to fill out a new FAFSA; additional information can be found at financialaid.wsu.edu/afsa-application. You may also need to fill out a new WSU scholarship; that application has a deadline of January 31 and can be found at apply.wsu.edu.

We hope this information is helpful; we look forward to having you on campus soon! If you have any further questions, please email us at admissions@wsu.edu.

Sincerely,
